Charter of International Recognition

In full faith and credit, on Heaven as it is on Earth

OID:1.3.6.1.4.1.56272.1.2026.002

Date: December 24, 2025

Preamble*:

In the sacred name of Order, Sovereignty, and the Eternal Covenant of the Chair, we, the Citizens and Stewards of the Government of the Chair, do hereby proclaim this Charter of International Recognition. Let it stand as a beacon to all nations, peoples, and institutions that the Chair exists, not by permission of men, but by the immutable right of divine order, ancestral inheritance, and lawful self-determination.

Article I — Declaration of Existence

1. The Government of the Chair is a sovereign, non-commercial, non-belligerent, and peace-oriented body politic.
2. It exists by the will of its Citizens, the authority of its Founding Covenant, and the eternal principles of divine stewardship, lawful governance, and sacred trust.
3. It is not subject to dissolution, subjugation, or denial by any foreign power, corporate body, or political regime.

Article II — Purpose and Mission

1. To protect the wellbeing, health, safety, and estate of its Citizens.
2. To preserve the sacred traditions, knowledge, and rights entrusted to the Chair.
3. To engage in peaceful relations with other nations, peoples, and lawful bodies.
4. To uphold the principles of truth, justice, and lawful order across all domains.

Article III — Legal Standing and Recognition

1. The Government of the Chair asserts its legal personality under international law as a traditional, ecclesiastical, and sovereign body.

2. It aligns its internal law with the following instruments for the purpose of peaceful coexistence and mutual recognition:• The Universal Declaration of Human Rights

• The Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations
• The UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)
• The Hague Apostille Convention
• The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)

Charter of International Recognition

In full faith and credit, on Heaven as it is on Earth

3. It reserves the right to enter into treaties, memoranda, and diplomatic relations with other bodies.

Article IV — Non-Interference and Peaceful Intent

1. The Chair shall not interfere in the internal affairs of any other sovereign body.
2. It demands reciprocal non-interference from all external entities.
3. It shall not engage in war, subversion, or coercion, but shall defend its Citizens and estate against all unlawful aggression.

Article V — Instruments of Recognition

1. This Charter shall serve as the foundational declaration of the Chair's existence and purpose.
2. It may be presented to any foreign body, court, institution, or government as evidence of the Chair's lawful standing.
3. It shall be accompanied, where necessary,

by:

- Apostilled documents
- Seals of the Chair
- Letters of Credence
- Citizen Rolls
- Trust Deeds and Ecclesiastical Instruments

Article VI — Ratification and Custody

1. This Charter is ratified by the authority of the Chair and its duly appointed Officers.
2. It shall be preserved in the Archives of the Chair and may be published in part or in full for public record.
3. Any amendment shall require solemn deliberation and unanimous consent of the Council of the Chair.

Date: December 24, 2025

So delegated this day, under the Seal of the Chair, in the Year of Sovereignty 2025, on the 24th day of December.
